after their arrival, on the terms proposed by you in one of your early letters, which I think was 40 pr head: & 4th what will be the probable expense of the Kitchen Utensils &c as detailed in your last letter under No 5 =

I am apprehensive that the expedition should fail direct from the port, that I may avoid giving trouble to any one = but as a matter of receipt, I am sure you will not complain of the tax imposed on your kind attention -

Respectfully Yours
