general lines to the agent but could not find one here I now send it by the mail I think much about coming and believe that the day of the Lord is at hand and am the more earnestly engaged at his day approaching

I have had a good hope in the spring. I hope I have it in this case. We have above one fire now and most will be the end the weather are willfully blind although they complain of the cold day

May the Lord prepare us for what is coming

My son is now beginning to build a respect & love him if he could join the cause they are made with great pleasure

I would thank you to see Mr Shumaker tell him I hope the ladies of Baltimore will be great things effected

May the Lord bless you all and establish your young
