Baltimore Nov 24th 183

Dear Sir I have laboured hard for some days past although in fever to get together sundry articles as per order of my friends Baltimore, but I am or shall be unable to see them on board the ships tomorrow as they say hard day. I therefore take the liberty to send them to the office that they may go down with other articles. & be carefully stowed under the direction of your self or your substitute. There is such a melange of Hats Coats & Women's apparel that it would be a pity to have them rent or broken open.
I hope no further apology is necessary for thus troubling an already knee deep in Hurry-burly I have some letters to forward. Will they be in time on Monday morning 8 o'clock?

Yrs respectfully

Jas Hall
