A Letter from Mr. Powderly.

HE GIVES HIS REASONS FOR DECLINING TO SPEAK AT A LABOR MEETING.

Grand Master Workman Powderly has addressed a letter to a committee of the united labor party of Philadelphia in reply to an invitation to address a convention of that party in which he says: "I am sensible of the honor conferred in selecting me to act as speaker of the evening, and while under ordinary circumstances I would be pleased to lend my services in aid of the movement in which you are engaged, yet there are good and valid reasons why I should not respond to the call thus made upon me. * * While it might be entirely proper for me to speak at such a meeting, yet it creates the impression that the order of the Knights of Labor is being drawn into the contest, and it is my duty to do all that lies in my power to keep the order over which I have been chosen to preside above the tide of partisan politics. At New York I spoke as an individual voicing the sentiment of united labor, and not as general master workman of the Knights of Labor. While I am general master workman I will never again occupy a place either as speaker or officer on a political platform.

"I would advise you not to take any action as a party. It seems to me that it becomes the duty of all interested to endeavor to educate the masses to free the ballot-box from the degrading influences of the bribe giver and taker as well as from that tool of monopoly—whisky. Put forth your every effort to discover what is wrong in the management of the municipal affairs of your city; do not, as is too often the case, allow the interest to die out on the eve of election day, but continue until you have located the cause of the trouble. You will find that in order to remove the cause of the trouble you will have to begin at the bottom and work up, instead of beginning at the top and falling down. If your movement means what its name indicates, keep it up, and elicit the services of all honest men, for all such are interested in honest government regardless of their calling in life."

A Death-Bed Confession.

A DESERTED WIFE'S REVELATION.

Richmond is again stirred by a murder. The sensation this time is the result of a deserted wife's ante-mortem statement in relation to a crime committed by her husband, a saloon keeper, who sold out his business and soon after left the city for the West, leaving his wife behind. Last Saturday Mrs. Shinnick, who has been ill with consumption, complicated with other diseases, finding her end fast approaching, made known her desire to make a public statement. Police Richardson was sent for, and to him the dying woman related the details of a murder perpetrated by her husband over a year ago. She says that one night, between the hours of 11 and 12 o'clock, she happened to enter the bar by the back door, when she saw her husband, who was in front of the bar counter, strike and knock down a white man with a pair of brass knuckles, that he turned, and, seeing her, ordered her to go upstairs, which she did. She could not rest, however, and creeping down again she peeped into the bar, when she was horrified by seeing her husband drag a man's body behind the counter, rob it of a roll of money, raise the trap at the end of the bar, and push the body into an old well under the floor.

Last fall, two State officials, J. M. Carroll, city treasurer of Staunton, and W. H. Crawford, clerk of Bland county, left their homes for Richmond, since which time neither of them have ever been heard from, and the belief is strongly prevalent that one of these was Shinnick's victim. The description of the murdered man in some respects agrees with the appearance of both, but more so in regard to Crawford. The last that was heard of Shinnick, he was in Cincinnati, whence he wrote last month two letters to an ex-detective asking information as to what was going on in Richmond, if he was talked about in any way, and what was said about him; if his wife had ever given out anything about him, and saying he had gotten a divorce from her, and that he wanted to come back to Richmond. He warned the ex-detective to say nothing about his writing to him. Shinnick has been found in the Cincinnati work-house.

THE TRADE DOLLAR.—The bill just past by the Senate provides that trade dollars, "not defaced, mutilated or stamped," may, until July 1, 1887, be exchanged for standard silver dollars, dollar for dollar. When received into the treasury they shall be regarded as so much silver bullion, and shall be recoined into standard dollars, but their value as bullion shall be deducted from the amount required by the act of February, 1878, to be purchased for coinage into standard dollars. It is provided, however, that not more than $500,000 worth of trade dollars shall be received in any one month. The House is believed to be favorably disposed to the bill, and its passage at this session may be regarded as probable.

A REMARKABLE QUARTETTE OF BROTHERS.—A family of four brothers named Acken, living in Middlesex county, N. J., are noted for their vigor and size. The Trenton Gazette gives their ages, heights and weights as follows: William is 83 years old, 6 feet 3 inches in height, and weighs 250 pounds; Henry is 81, 6 feet 4, and weighs 270 pounds; Samuel is 79, 6 feet 5, and weighs 225; Theodore is 73, 6 feet 6, and weighs 230 pounds. They are in excellent health, and vigorous beyond their years.

BALTIMORE MARKET.—The Baltimore papers of yesterday quote as follows: WHEAT—Longberry 93c.@95c.; Fultz, 93c. @95c. for fair to good. CORN—White, prime, 45@44; yellow, 45@47. OATS—36.

Our World Moves.

FROM OUR GALENA CORRESPONDENT.

The inhabitants of this mundane sphere live as much perhaps in anticipation as in the realization of things material. Most intelligent mortals are interested in current local affairs and will talk of the things "to be" quite as much as of actual events. So has it been in our pleasant village. The coming events that have cast their shadows before have created no small amount of interest, particularly to the female portion of our community. Of course "Observer" refers mainly to the expected and happy mating of several couples of devoted lovers. The culmination of many fond hopes with them has been realized within the past ten days, and no less than three happy pairs have, with the assistance of our good brother, Mr. Tomkinson, launched their respective boats upon the sea of matrimony. The first to set the ball rolling was Mr. William Knighton and our fair young friend Miss Bertie Hall. Then on Tuesday evening last in the M. E. Church, Mr. Howard Grey to Miss Maggie Knighton, with two gallant young gents, Messrs. Hicks and Petticord, as ushers. A brilliant reception and choice supper was tendered the happy pair by the father of the groom, Mr. Henry Grey. Not being there on the joyful occasion (unavoidably absent in city) "Observer" dares not attempt second-handed a further description of the dress and scene.

On Wednesday evening last, at the M. E. parsonage, Mr. John Hamilton, of Georgetown, and Miss Anna DeFord, of Millington, were happily united. The bride was elegantly attired in a rich, brown silk, lace trimmings and looked deliciously sweet, bearing the trying (and tying) ordeal with charming modesty and grace. John will be a still happier fellow when settled in his cosily furnished home on Phelps Avenue.

Father Flynn kindly hands in the following items of news: The fair now in progress in Odd Fellow's Hall for benefit of St. Dennis' will in all probability clear nearly $800.

Bishop Curtis returned to Wilmington on Tuesday morning. On his confirmation service the sacrament was administered to 37 persons. The exercises during forty-hour devotion and papal jubilee were quite interesting and well attended. Lectures on the following themes were delivered: Sin, purgatory, indulgencies, last judgment, and they were pregnant with thought and illustration.

Mrs. John Pennington has presented her happy husband with a fine son and report says that the father who is a crack sportsman and fine shot has already bought his heir a fine breach-loader in anticipation of the youngster becoming a regular Nimrod.

A Xmas treat will be given the members of the M. E. S. S. on Tuesday evening, Dec. 28; St. Andrews', P. E., on Wednesday next, and the Westminster, Pres., on Thursday following at their vacant parsonage, Georgetown.

Galena, Dec. 23, 1886. OBSERVER.

THE PASTEUR METHODS.—Dr. Christopher Johnston read Tuesday night before the Baltimore Academy of Medicine a paper on his recent visit to Pasteur's dispensary and laboratory in Paris. Many foreign doctors were present at Pasteur's headquarters, eager observers, and there was also a numerous attendance of persons bitten by supposed rabid animals. Dr. Johnston said that recently bitten persons were first inoculated with a thin pulp, made by crushing a portion of a dried spinal cord, ten days old, from a rabbit dead of rabies or hydrophobia. On the second day a ninth-day cord was employed, on the third day an eight-day cord, and so on until the fresh cord of the preceding day was brought into requisition. Eighty-four patients were treated by the above method the day of Dr. Johnston's visit. But 351 persons were bitten last year in France by rabietic animals, yet M. Pasteur treated 1,700. The excess came from other countries. Rabbits die in six days when inoculated. They are inoculated from the brain of a rabbit which died of hydrophobia, while Pasteur's patients are inoculated from the lower part of the rabbit's spinal column. As to the practical working of the system it was objected by Dr. Johnston that enough has not been done to demand the acceptance of Pasteur's theory. Time and the future labors of Pasteur and others must develop the truth that may reside in Pasteur's plan of treatment. Dr. Von Frisch, of Vienna, and Pasteur both fully inoculated animals, the former rabbits and the latter dogs, and then attempted their cure. All of Von Frisch's rabbits died, and Pasteur objects to the slow method of Von Frisch, and urges rapid and repeated vaccinations, but his own success was but "partial."—Sun.

A Card to the Public.

I respectfully announce to this community that I have opened a

NEW CLOTHING HOUSE

IN CHESTERTOWN,

adjoining Toulson's Drug Store, and in so doing I am fully aware that in order to succeed, my prices MUST NOT be higher than those who are engaged in the same business, with this fact plainly before me my first duty is the interest of those who favor me with their trade, consequently those who deal at the New Clothing House, may feel assured that they will get the advantage of the LOW PRICES prevailing at this establishment.

This line of Clothing comprising

SUITS and OVERCOATS

OF ALL KINDS,

were bought direct from the manufacturer late this season for the CASH, as a result they were bought low and will be sold low. Do not buy until you have examined my stock and prices.

Flotsam for the Kent News.

A merry Christmas to ye editors.

The compliment paid by the KENT NEWS to Mr. B. F. Legg, the energetic mail carrier between Chestertown and Rock Hall, is, no doubt, fully deserved, but he is not alone in his determination to do his duty and oblige the public. Mr. Elijah Staats, of Fairlee, merits at least equal commendation. Not only did he brave the storm and bitter cold of the past few weeks, but twice made two trips a day to accommodate those who depend on him for their mails. Such fidelity should receive a more substantial acknowledgment than words. Now is the time to remember him and all underpaid public servants.

Our stores are ready for a liberal Christmas trade. Mrs. M. Greenwood makes a fine display to attract the juveniles. SIMON SHARP.

For the Kent News.

Christmas Night.

A little babe beneath a lowly shed,
A manger was his unpretending bed;
And yet the stars before the morn
Proclaimed, "This night a King is born!"
A palace was that cattle stall.
Oh, wondrous love!
Oh, priceless gift! God gave His all—His Son.
Some way to prove
Us not ungrateful, there must be,
Ye hearts that burst with gratitude
Rejoice! In mercy's plentitude
'Tis written, "Inasmuch as ye
Have done
To e'en the least, 'tis done to Me."
The sacrificing Father's heart we bless
For this—our humble proof of thankfulness.

IMPORTANT TO ALL INTERESTED!

PLEASE take notice that we must close up our accounts; necessity compels this course. We went to the expence last summer of hiring a man and called in person on a great many who did make promises to settle but failed to do so. Some have been owing us two and three years—others are strangers to us—all alike should feel it about time to settle.
