Cambridge Dec. 13th 1837

Rev. & Dr. Sir

Since my last communication, more than one month has elapsed, which should not have been the case had I not been in a region of country whence it would have been almost impracticable for a report to reach you, however as I shall, in a week or two, have emerged from said region into one more contiguous to mail routes you may, in future, expect more regular free and frequent reports of my almost indefatigable labours. Since my last report I have visited upwards of 120 families, of whom I have supplied 13 destitute with Bibles and some two or three with Testaments and have collected
