SATURDAY MORNING.....JAN. 1, 1887.

After All.

Despite the prayers and tears and earnest pleading,
And piteous protest o'er a hero's fall—
Despite the hopeful signs our hearts misleading,
Death cometh after all!

Over the brightest scenes are clouds descending,
The flame soars highest ere its deepest fall,
The glorious day has all too swift an ending,
Night cometh after all!

O'er bloom or beauty now in our possession
Is seen the shadow of the funeral pall,
Though Love and Life make tearful intercession
Death cometh after all!

A COLORED WHITE WOMAN.

The Strange Case of Mrs. Eldridge—A Change from Black to White.

A dispatch from Howell, Michigan, of Dec. 23, says: Mrs. Jacob Eldridge, Howell's strange freak of nature, the old colored woman who has been gradually turning white for several years, died here yesterday. She has been ill for several months, but it is not thought that the peculiarly strange change in color which she underwent, had anything to do with her last illness. The greater part of her body is now a healthy lily white. Her husband, who was a pioneer of this county, died Tuesday morning. Mrs. Eldridge's grandfather was a Guiana man, and her ancestors are full-blooded negroes as far as is known. The natural color of Mrs. Eldridge was quite dark, even for her race, and there was nothing peculiarly noticeable about it until she was quite advanced in years. Quite a number of years ago she noticed a spot of white about the size of a silver dollar, upon her right leg. In the course of a few months others appeared on various parts of her body, rather more prominent on her limbs than body. In time these grew together until most of her body became white. For the last few years the change has appeared to follow the principal nerves and in time crept up the spinal chord and over her forehead. About the time the change reached the fore part of her hair, streaks of white began to appear upon each side of her chin and meeting at her mouth. One peculiarity is that wherever the change came it was complete. There is no fading of the black off into the white through the various shades of gray, as would be expected. Instead of this the white and black are distinctly divided. The color of the changed portion is of a clear, healthy, lily whiteness, and one would hardly believe to look at the arm of Mrs. Eldridge that it was not the arm of a white woman.

During the change Mrs. Eldridge suffered no inconvenience whatever from it, and never felt any kind of sensation either of itching, nervousness or pain that could be attributed to that cause. It has seemed to gradually go on without affecting her feelings or health in any manner whatever. Coming to this county in 1852, the particulars of this strange case are within the knowledge of all citizens who know fully of its genuineness. When interviewed Dr. Coleman said: "I was first called to see her about the first of April. I cannot see that there is any skin disease. In the skin of the negro there is a pigmentary deposit, and in this case I think it is the absorption of this deposit as far as the skin is concerned. I never heard of a similar case."

BUSINESS MAN—You vagabond! You send in word that you would see me on business and when I ask what your business is you beg!

Vagabond—But you forget, sir; begging is my business.

MR. CHAS A. COX, American and Morris St., Phila., said: "My wife was bedridden, and her condition made me despair. 9 Doctors and everything else failed. The Russian Rheumatism Cure cured her in one week."

OUR FORE-FATHERS SOAP
Ask Your Grocer For It..
FAC-SIMILE OF THE LABEL ON THE WRAPPER.
NO MORE A MYSTERY. THE REASONS GIVEN.
WHY DOES THE CLOTHING TEAR SO EASILY?
ANSWER.—From the use of strong and impure Soap, made up in salable forms and shapes, with which the market is flooded. If you want to be right sure use ECKERS' OUR FOREFATHERS' SOAP—three connecting 4-inch cakes, making each bar one foot long; weight 22½ ounces—recommended by the Best Families, Hotels and Institutions throughout the country. It is prepared by the Grecian Purifying, Boiling and Settling Process, from fresh, clean and selected butchers' tallow. By its use you run no risk of contracting any skin disease; no stiffness of the arms or wrist. A great saving of time and labor. WASHING CLOTHES WITH OR WITHOUT BOILING OR SCALDING. You can use it as you wish, but to wash without boiling or scalding observe these directions: Take lukewarm water, rub with soap particularly on dirty spots, soak half an hour or more, gently rub on board and your clothes will be clean. Try it for one month and you will be convinced of its great advantages. VERY IMPORTANT TO KNOW.—That the best remedy for washing flannels to keep them from shrinking—wash in lukewarm water with FOREFATHERS' OR ECKERS' BOARD OF HEALTH SOAP (the greatest disinfectant known), and dry in a warm room; cold water hardens flannels and drying in cold air shrinks them. Ask your grocer for it. ECKERS' SOAPS WILL WASH WITH OR WITHOUT BOILING OR SCALDING.
