Harper, Decr. 28, 1837.

Dr James Hall,

My very dear Sir,

I have just this moment, at the time of have sold sailing, settled some business with Mr. Gill, by which I am enable to send you the enclosed draft. So that you see I have no time to say a word.

Horrible times! horrible times! As I do not much expect that this letter will find you in America, I shall just enclose the draft of $187.— and close in haste my letter of

Your dependant Kinsman & Servt.
