Mr Thomson

I hardly know what to say under the embarassment beneath which I labour – I wish to have some more definite information on the point under consideration – You may confide in me not as a confessor for that must be to God, who searcheth the heart and tries the reins of the children of men – Your first duty is to God – My forgiveness is obtained before it is asked – But what is that? – It is Christ and only Christ who cleanseth from all unrighteousness –

I must earnestly beg you to confess to me all that you may have done, if you have not already – and whatever shall prove for the best interest of that Holy Cause to which I trust I have devoted soul and body, and for that of your family shall be done –

Nothing can be gained by the Church of Christ by blazing forth to a wicked world the crimes of those who profess to be members of the pure Body of the Son of God – but you must be well aware of the fact that one guilty of what you have confessed yourself to be cannot continue in connection with a Missionary Soc. – The question now is to what extent are you guilty – If I understand your letter you say that you are guilty of criminal connection with that Sally – Was it after you had received the appointment of Missionary of the Prot. Epis. Ch. U. S. A.? You said nothing in regard to the story about Jack's wife.

Another man besides Hall has said something about this and some other things. I have not yet been able to ferret it out – He told the one who professed to know something about it to suppress it for it would hang you. This escaped my mind last night – But if you have done any other criminal act I wish you to confess it to me now while the subject is under consideration

If it lie in my power the whole affair shall be conducted in such a manner as shall result to the smallest injury of your unfortunate family –

Truly your Friend
