Rev. & Dear Sir

The December No. of your Journal has just fallen into my hands — and it is with great regret that I find only a part of my collections acknowledged. If any of those gentlemen who gave to your society see that number of the paper, I am sure it will be strange to my but a part of the collections are noticed — and perhaps the more so, as the same thing happened once before in regard to them.

Will you have the goodness to insert them in the next No. with a statement, that it was by accident, that they were omitted before.

Sam. Stryker & Co	5.00
Z. Ropell	5.00
W. Halsha	3.00
C. Burroughs & son	3.00
C. C. Yard	1.00
J. Southard	5.00
Joseph Titus	5.00
M. Bond	2.50
J. Voorhees	3.00

Mr Titus of Titusville N.J. wishes your paper —

Yours very respectfully S. R. Wyckoff
