SATURDAY MORNING..........MAR. 12, 1887

REPORT OF THE BOOK COMMITTEE.

To the Officers and Members of the Teachers' Association of Kent County, Maryland. — Your Committee, to whom was assigned the duty under a Resolution offered at a previous meeting of the Association, "of making a selection of books suited to create in our pupils a desire for good reading," having had the same under advisement, beg leave to report:

That the purpose of your Committee was to name no immoral books, or books absolutely hurtful. To exclude also from the list those of a purely sensational tendency. They endeavored to keep in mind the importance of naming such books as they thought would prove most helpful to the individual reader, believing with Mr. Ruskin, "that the value of any book to a particular reader is to be measured by its helpfulness or serviceableness to that reader."

This desire for good reading must first be created, by placing in the child's hands good, wholesome, agreeable mental food, not beyond his powers of digestion or assimilation, but carefully prepared by men and women, who have written to make the young stronger, better and and happier. The books named are as follow:

ANSWER.—From the use of strong and impure Soap, made up in salable forms and shapes, with which the market is flooded. If you want to be right sure use ECKERS' OUR FOREFATHERS' SOAP—three connecting 4-inch cakes, making each bar one foot long; weight 22½ ounces—recommended by the Best Families, Hotels and Institutions throughout the country. It is prepared by the Grecian Purifying, Boiling and Settling Process, from fresh, clean and selected butchers' tallow. By its use you run no risk of contracting any skin disease; no stiffness of the arms or wrist. A great saving of time and labor. WASHING CLOTHES WITH OR WITHOUT BOILING OR SCALDING. You can use it as you wish, but to wash without boiling or scalding observe these directions: Take lukewarm water, rub with soap particularly on dirty spots, soak half an hour or more, gently rub on board and your clothes will be clean. Try it for one month and you will be convinced of its great advantages. VERY IMPORTANT TO KNOW.—That the best remedy for washing flannels to keep them from shrinking—wash in lukewarm water with FOREFATHERS' OR ECKERS' BOARD OF HEALTH SOAP (the greatest disinfectant known), and dry in a warm room; cold water hardens flannels and drying in cold air shrinks them. Ask your grocer for it. ECKERS' SOAPS WILL WASH WITH OR WITHOUT BOILING OR SCALDING.
