Dear Sir

At first I send you an extract of a letter from Rev. J. Leighton Wilson, at Cape Palmas. The communication is made, under the full conviction that the abuses complained of, have not the slightest sanction or countenance from your Society: and that they have only to be assured of their existence, promptly & effectually to suppress them.

Very respectfully &c

"In your letter request I take up my pen to communicate to you, both his & my own change of views in relation to colonizing your slaves at this place. You will be surprised to hear this, & may be put to some very considerable inconvenience, if they are sent forward on their way to Africa, by what you may at
