SUCCESSFUL EASTERN SHOREMEN.

A Talk on a Train With One of Them.

THE DELAWARE RAILROAD, ON THE TRAIN, March 5, 1887.

"Who are the most successful Eastern Shoremen in business? — that is, who have got rich the fastest?"

"Well, there are but few, if more than one, wealthy Eastern Shoremen, as that term is now used—and, of course, business opportunities for making large fortunes are not abundant in any rural section.

"Mr. Tome? yes, if you call Jacob Tome an Eastern Shoreman, you must put him down as the wealthiest by far, and as he lives in Port Deposit, which is geographically an Eastern Shore town we may call him an Eastern Shoreman.

"Ten millions? I should think not, but certainly he must be worth five or six millions. He owns several banks, many bonds, stocks and mortgages, considerable real estate here and immense tracts of timber lands in the Northwest. Mr. Tome has made all his wealth himself and made it chiefly in the lumber and banking business. He is now an old man, but as active and alert in business matters as ever. He has no children. His present wife is his second, and is a young woman. Likely Hon. John A. J. Cresswell, his nephew, will be his principal heir.

"Mr. George B. Westcott, of Kent county, is another gentleman who has a large fortune for these parts and is probably worth between one and two millions, accumulated in a long business career. Mr. Westcott has been a very skillful financier. He is also a banker, but not to the extent that Mr. Tome is. His son, Mr. C. T. Westcott, inherits his father's business ability and his propensity for money-making. If he has a career as long as his father's has been (Mr. Westcott, Sr., is older than Mr. Tome), he will be the rich man of the Shore.

"Mr. Thomas W. Eliason, of Chestertown, has also been a very successful business man, and has quite a large fortune. As a merchant he has been very successful; likewise as an agriculturist, and he owns some of the finest farms in Kent, Queen Anne's and Talbot counties. I would not be surprised if Richard Hynson, of Chestertown, has made more money than any other Eastern Shore professional man, unless James U. Dennis, of Somerset, has beat him in this respect.

"Yes, I had forgot about Mr. John B. Brown, of Centreville. He is a money-making lawyer, and the report is he is getting rich very fast. Col. McKenney, of the same county, is perhaps the richest farmer we have got on the Shore, as he is certainly the largest and is constantly increasing his bounds.

"There have been no large fortunes made on the Eastern Shore in farming exclusively. That business has helped, and the buying and selling of real estate has materially aided many people in building up their fortunes; and under the old plantation regime there were some planters whose broad acres and hundreds of negroes gave them the reputation of being rich, when they were not. Lots of independent and confortable farmers we've got, who never do any other kind of business, but they are not millionaires. Cultivating the soil don't make millionaires.

"Talking of successful men the Jacksons of Wicomico—I mean the lumber people—have made a great deal of money. I am told the firm is worth a million, at least, and a million in that business, you know, ought to soon double itself. The lumber business must always be a profitable one when rightly conducted.

"Here we are close to Porter's. I must go to the Baltimore car. You are going to Philadelphia? Well, good-bye."

Girls Read Carefully.

It is disgusting to hear persons speak scornfully of girls who work for a living. No sensible man is dazzled by the glitter of a jeweled finger, a gold bracelet or watch, bought "on tick" perhaps. All these have not half as much fascination as a pleasant disposition, a happy intelligent face, a well-cooked meal every day of the week and a glistening, properly-ironed shirt front. A dimpled chin and a sunny face in the kitchen is worth a score of millinery signs in the parlor clawing ivory and screeching the words, "A flower from my angel mother's grave," when very likely the poor mother is hanging out the washing in the back yard.

Tossed by a Cow.

A little daughter of Mr. Thomas Buckingham, living on John street, this city, was gored by a cow belonging to Mr. Ezra Shue, a butcher. The little girl was crossing an alley near her home, and the cow, which was being driven along the street, attacked her. A horn ran in its mouth, and the child was tossed about twenty-one feet. The horn not only severely injured the child's mouth, but she was considerably bruised by being thrown. Dr. E. D. Wells attending her.—Westminster Advocate.

MR. BEECHER ON BIG BONNETS.—Rev. Henry Ward Beecher said about the big bonnets: "Like George Washington, I cannot tell a lie. The unicorn bonnets now in vogue are very comely in my eyes; a world finer than the scrimpy patches on women's heads, that were of no use, and were positively homely. The present style gives elevation to the head and a kind of dignity. I cannot be bribed to decry them. The one valid objection to them is that in churches, theatres or assemblies they intercept the view. Why not lay them aside for the hour, as women do shawls, pellisses and cloaks, and as men do hats? It would seem a greater pity that one should lose the usual objects of going to church merely for the sake of hearing the sermon."

TOMMY was presented lately by his older sister with a neat penwiper for use at school, where he has just begun attendance. He admired it, but remarked, "I don't have much use for it Jennie." "Why not, Tommy? You use a pen every day at school?" "Yes, I know it." "Why don't you need a penwiper, then?" "'Cause I always wipe my pen on the girls hair that sits in front of me!"

MR. DUNCAN C. ROSS has heretofore stood as the world's champion hammer thrower, with a record of 100 feet 5 inches, with a 16-pound hammer. Tuesday last, at North East, Wilson C. Couden, Esq., of Perryville, threw a hammer of the above weight, with a 4-foot handle, the extraordinary distance of 105 feet 6 inches.—North East Star.

Cape Charles City, barely two years old, is to have a newspaper, the Cape Charles Pioneer.

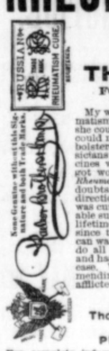
RUSSIAN RHEUMATISM CURE

HAS PROVED TO BE

THE REMEDY

FOR RHEUMATISM.



MARION, IND., Aug. 12, 1886.

My wife was so afflicted with Rheumatism in her shoulder and arm that she could do nothing for herself, and could not sleep in bed, but had to be bolstered up in a rocking chair. Physicians prescribed, many patent medicines were used, but the pain still got worse. I sent for the Russian Rheumatism Cure, under a cloud of doubts. It was used according to directions for one week, and my wife was cured. It was one of those agreeable surprises that you meet once in a lifetime. It is now over four months since the cure was effected, and she can wash, iron, hoe in the garden, and do all kinds of work as well as ever, and has no symptoms of the old disease. We have no hesitancy in recommending the cure to all similarly afflicted, as SAFE AND SURE.

Truly yours,
H. J. FISHELL.

Thousands of others have been cured.

PRICE $2.50.

Thousands of cases of Consumption are cured every year by Acker's celebrated English Remedy. It is a guaranted preparation; if it does not help you it will cost you nothing. Try it. A single dose will show its good effect. Trial bottles 10 cts. C. F. STAM, Druggist.

Remarkable Success!!

—THE—

IMPERIAL BURNER!

I herewith annex a few testimonials:

I never could find a lamp which would give a satisfactory light until I was furnished with the Imperial by Mr. Stam. W. J. SCOTT.

Eight burners light my Hall brilliantly. They give more light and less trouble than any burner I have ever used. COLIN F. STAM.

Mr. L. K. Stam—Dear Sir—The Eight Light Chandelier purchased of you, with the Imperial Burner has given perfect satisfaction, lighting up the entire hall, and was commented upon favorably by all present.

Yours, &c., T. A. HULME.

I am delighted with my lamp; never had so much satisfaction with light before.

H. W. VICKERS.

I have tried several different kinds of Burners in lighting my store, and find the Imperial excels them all; it gives more light and greater satisfaction than any I ever used.

M. T. GOSLEE.

Reference is also given to any one using the burner. It is not necessary for me to say any more regarding this burner, though I give the simple and only directions needed:

DIRECTIONS.—The Burner when sent out is wicked and properly trimmed. After that it needs no trimming whatever, or further attention than occasionally wiping off with a soft cloth. In lighting never use paper. When the Lamp is lighted, turn up the wick gradually until the chimney is heated, then turn to full height. The chimney requires no wiping or other cleaning than rinsing in cold water, and allowing it to drain and dry.

These burners can be bought at the Paint Store next door to Goslee's Shoe Store.

A WORD TO OWNERS OF HORSES!

SAMUEL HICKS

Devotes his ENTIRE ATTENTION to the HORSE-SHOEING BUSINESS, and is therefore able to execute this work in the very best manner and at lowest prices.

I have made this business a study and profess to understand thoroughly the best methods and improvements in handling horses' feet and the character of shoes worn. The importance of shoeing a horse RIGHT is not as well understood as it should be by the owners of these noble animals.

Under my system of shoeing CUTTING and FORGING is prevented. I only ask a trial, feeling assured of my ability to give entire satisfaction to my customers.

OUR FORE-FATHERS SOAP

Ask Your Grocer For It.

FAC-SIMILE OF THE LABEL ON THE WRAPPER.

NO MORE A MYSTERY. THE REASONS GIVEN.

WHY DOES THE CLOTHING TEAR SO EASILY?

ANSWER.—From the use of strong and impure Soap, made up in salable forms and shapes, with which the market is flooded. If you want to be right sure use ECKERS' OUR FOREFATHERS' SOAP—three connecting 4-inch cakes, making each bar one foot long; weight 22½ ounces—recommended by the Best Families, Hotels and Institutions throughout the country. It is prepared by the Grecian Purifying, Boiling and Settling Process, from fresh, clean and selected butchers' tallow. By its use you run no risk of contracting any skin disease; no
