Philadelphia August 8th 1838

Sir

I send this to say that I will leave for Baltimore today at 2 PM. and as it will therefore be late before I arrive. shall do my self the honor to wait on you tomorrow. Mr Buchanan requested me to say to Mr Gatchet. should I see him. that the reason he has not yet answered his last letter. was that a plan was about to be proposed to unite the interests of the societies here, and the colonies on the coast, which he was desirous of submitting to Mr L. as soon as it was completed. In case I should not see him I have mentioned it here to you. and have the honor to be
