Rev. J. H. Eaton,

Dear Sir,

With pleasure, and profit I have perused the pages of the Maryland Colonization Journal. And as I consider colonization one of the great moral enterprizes of the day I feel bound to lend in my mite to its aid. Within you will find $2.00 the only compensation for which I want a copy of the excellent Journal. I hope the cause of colonization will be pursued with the divine sanction, so that all the pupils of colour may be ultimately emancipated, unmixed, and happily settled upon their own native soil. Abolitionism in our country is only another name for the demon of discord.

Respectfully Yours

[illegible]
