Brother Coster New Market Sept 3d 1838

Sir I arrived in this place in tolerable Health and have done a little business although I Dont Expect I shall do a great Deal I Expect to set off for Liberty some time to morrow I was surprised in looking over my papers not to find the list of subscribers for Friedrich I suppose it must have slipped out of my Book into my Pocket and I Expect its there as I thought my summer coat would be too light to bring out as the weather has gone a deal cooler and that was the cause of the misfortune therefore I shall take it as a favour if you will let John make another out and send it Directed for me to the care of Dr Rither of Mr Bell as speedily as possible

I Remain Dr Sir
Yours Respt
