J. H. B. Latrobe Esq

Dear Sir

Some time since I took the liberty of writing to you respecting a colored man belonging to my daughter (Mrs J. Ellwarthington) - whom she wishes to emancipate & send to one of the Colonies established on the coast of Africa for emigrants from this country. She prefers the colony at Cape Palmas - because of the residence at that place of her Cousin Mrs B. Wilson - (late Miss Bayard of Savannah), & she is anxious to know whether any respectable male he dishat = ched - this fall by the Maryland Colonization Society. for Cape Palmas
