Office of the American Colonization Society
Washington 30 November 1838

Dear Sir,

In the Annual Report of the Managers of this Society to be made to the General meeting on the 11th. prox., it would be desirable to notice the proceedings of your Institution since the 12th. of December last year. If you should find it convenient, within a day or two, to forward a short paragraph stating the number of emigrants whom you have sent out within the interval, and the general condition of your Colony, it shall be used in our Report.

Yours respectfully,

R. R. Gurley
