CHESTERTOWN - SEPT. 17, 1887

Views of a Cecil Reformer.

"R. C. M." writing from Elkton says he is "one of those unfortunate reform democrats on whom the scorching rays of the great Maryland luminary have fallen during the late heated term," and while taking issue with it in respect to political corruption in Baltimore, in view of the evidence adduced in the election cases, says:

"I am aware of the nice distinction you draw, and it was, perhaps, well to draw it, and yet, if the fountain be impure how shall the waters flowing from it be sweet? You say they are, and you should know. So let us accept the assurance, and trust that the fountain itself is henceforth to be pure also. As a reformer I rejoice to know it, for I am a democrat of a far older school than even Mr. Gorman or Mr. Cowen. I delight even in the name of Bourbon, forgetting nothing of democratic principles, and learning nothing not known to the fathers of the school. Hence I can neither follow the devious paths of our senior Senator nor skip with acrobat Cowen over the ropes into the sawdust ring of our old enemies. I have always imagined that as democrats we professed to hold certain enduring principles, and that these principles did not and could not change simply because a few men elect to use them for their personal ends. Now if Mr. Cowen is a democrat he could not carry his democratic principles into the republican camp any more than Arnold could have carried his patriotism into the British army. In either case abandonment was necessary, as in either case reward was expectant. Certainly, if democrats have any principles to maintain, the fact that we are enjoying a national democratic administration, and on the eve of a national election, is the time to assert them and battle for them with Jacksonian vigor. No one denies that we have in the field a State ticket worthy of our support, or that it is a matter of the first importance to Maryland and to the national democratic party to keep our grand old State in the democratic fold. Now, I may not like our senior Senator's ways, or at least some of his appointments to office, but I greatly prefer them to the conduct of Balaam, who hired himself to curse Israel, and hired himself in vain. 'Behold! I have received commandment to bless, and he hath blessed, and I cannot reverse it.'"

The Colored Voters.

Stansbury Boyce, an intelligent colored citizen of Baltimore city, recently expressed himself on the colored people and the republican party in the following language:

"We have done our best to assist in the preservation of the republican party, but all our friends have gone, and the vitals of the grand old party are being eaten out by mercenary camp-followers, and jealousy and selfishness are forcing us from her side. The colored people have followed the white republicans with the submission and humility of a dog, but no recognition of them is exhibited until the moment of voting. Sometimes a self-styled leader of the colored people is given some paltry position under the government for the purpose of hoodwinking the colored people, or a solitary, obsequious, tractable colored man is invited to some of their unimportant meetings as a figurehead, and too well do these mynnidons accomplish their mission, for at the ward meetings they obstruct business and paralyze every effort looking toward the advancement of our claims. The white republicans have scorned to consult the colored people, but have required them to execute their plans, whether for the sustaining of the republican party or for an alien, incongruous, amalgamated party, and in consequence of the latter, a large portion of colored voters, who have ever been loyal to the republican party, were forced to determine for themselves the comparative merit of the candidates, regardless of party affiliations, and have thus been branded with the name of colored democrats. In the national conventions Maryland had but one solitary colored delegate, and he was antagonized by all the white republicans in the State; they likewise assume dictatorship and a monopoly of all offices in ward, city and State. It seems, therefore, to me expedient that a colored State central committee should be organized, which would secure us legitimate representation, and obviate the necessity of disunion, or an individual determining adversely to the choice of his party."

A colored State central committee has been organized and will open headquarters in a few days on Calvert street, Baltimore city, for the purpose of looking after the interests of the colored people in this State.

SHAM FIGHT FOR THE PRESIDENT.—President and Mrs. Cleveland are to be treated to a grand military display during their visit to Atlanta, Ga., on the 19th of October. Gov. Gordon has arranged a sham battle for the President, and in connection with Gen. P. M. B. Young, who was the youngest major-general in the Confederate army, has perfected the maneuvers. Four batteries of artillery, ten companies of cavalry and six thousand infantry will engage, and Gen. Young will command the forces. The field covers seventy acres; the battle will last about two hours, and promises to be a most imposing spectacle.

THIS is the time of the year when the farmer who does not take a newspaper because he cannot afford it meets with two or three traveling confidence men, and gets cheated out of enough money in one day to pay for a subscription to half a dozen daily papers from every State in the Union.

W. A. HYLAND,

GALENA, MD.,

THE SEASON IS NOW HERE when the farmer should begin to turn "mother earth." The saving of labor of both man and beast is necessary to compete with the low price of agricultural products. To do this we would recommend first, the

as the "friend of the farmer," as the points and shares can be turned three or four times, thereby saving the expense of buying new ones. Next to the above is the

which excels all for lightness of draft.—Persons purchasing the above not only save labor but expense of shares and points.

We keep constantly on hand all repairs for above Plows, and also for the Oliver, Advance, Syracuse, Roland, Concave, Minor & Horton and Wiley Plows at my shops at Galena and H. H. Hyland's in Chestertown.

"SUPERIOR DRILLS."

FARMERS who desire to purchase DRILLS for use this fall should call and see the SUPERIOR. It is said by those who have used it to be the most positive fertilizer drill and seed sower on the market. Sample Drills may be seen at my son's in Chestertown or at my Factory in Galena. It is manufactured in Springfield, Ohio.

Farmers who want Chilled Plow Castings and the best and cheapest plows on the market will find them at my Foundry and at H. H. Hyland's in Chestertown.

After long and careful study we have found the secret of how to make a good FARM BELL which we thihk superior to other makes.

THOMPSON---Up Town.

TO THE PUBLIC GENERALLY:

Having been well patronized by the people of Chestertown and vicinity for the last seventeen years we tender our most sincere thanks for same and will in the future as in the past do our utmost to please all. We have and intend to keep in stock a full line of all of which will be sold at close figures. We have now a Ladies Button or Lace Shoe at $1; a man's Solid (or no sale) Plow Shoe at $1 a pair; a man's Dress Shoe at $1.25, $1.50, $2 and $2.50; and the best Glove Kid Top, kid front, worked buttonhole Shoe for Ladies and Misses at $1.75 that we ever saw—Having sold 600 pairs of them in two (2) years without one just complaint. We also have a Kid-top Shoe for Ladies at $1.25 a pair, but please bear in mind that when you buy a pair of $1.25 kid-top shoes of us you will not get our $1.75 shoe, as we only advertise what we can and will do and nothing more.

LIME, HAIR, WHITEWASH BRUSHES, &c. We are selling the W. J. Lime, which is said by both carpenters and masons to slack at least one-fourth more than other lime, and having made a special contract for same would like builder as well as whitewasher to call and get prices.

We also have Wm. Lea & Sons, C. A. Gambrill's, and other brands of FLOUR, which we are selling by the Pound, Bag or Barrel as cheap as it can be bought in the city for the cash, as we sell Flour by the barrel for the CASH ONLY.

☞We aim to keep a little of everything and by buying our goods close for cash and discounting all our bills we are enabled to meet all and any competition. Again thanking you for past favors we ask a continuance of same. Respectfully,

May 7, 1887. W. C. A. THOMPSON.
