Washington City Oct. 24th 1839

Revd Ira N. Easter.

Dear Sir

You will perhaps be surprised at my again calling on you after the reception of your last letter. Be assured, Sir nothing but the greatest necessity could compel me to do it. I now beg you to endeavor to send me (by return of mail) some money; however small the sum, it will be most gladly received by me at this time, as I am in actual distress for it. Any kindness or favor you may show to me will insure Doctor Macdowall's gratitude on his return. I shall most anxiously await your answer.

Very respectfully

M. E. Macdowall
