Shepherdstown, 29th Nov. 1839.

My friend —

I am just on my return from a second trip to Virginia and have with me two young men, one 22 and the other 21 years old — one the brother of the girl you saw at my house the other her cousin. I shall take them to Baltimore on the 5th proximo. Be pleased to write me by the return of the mail where I shall take them when I get to Baltimore, or I wish to take them direct to the boarding house —

The mail hack is the mail is closing —

Yours friendly,

Caspar W. Pence.

Direct to Hagerstown —
