Cape Palmas June 10th 1840

Revd Sir

Please excuse the liberty I take in writing you by Dr Sam Hall who leaves here now homeward bound; soliciting a favor of you. Our circumstances are such that it renders it impossible be always supplied with shoes out of the Agencies store and whenever they are indispensable therefore beg that you would favor me by taking from Dr Hall who will deliver to you, one box of Shoe Moulds, and return the same of them to me by the first conveyance in shoe leather, both upper and sole; Calf skin for uppers will be preferable. If not leather, sheepskins and Tobacco

My self and family are enjoying health and truly wish you are likewise.
