from their respective Registers Spirits all needful information upon this point & bring it with them to the Convention.

We got up a meeting here & have had a full delegation appointed to ye Convention, some of whom will attend — I shall endeavor to be present, if nothing should occur to prevent; for I feel much interest in this benevolent & important enterprise.

Dr Hall has, I presume, returned to Baltimore. It w^d have afforded me pleasure to have seen him on his return from Cumberland — My best regards to him, with assurances of the great respect with which I am

Dear Sir
