Sir – be happy to hear from you on this subject, and should you write soon after receiving this a letter would reach me here (Cumberland)

In haste Respectfully yours
S. M. Bladgett

P.S. I have papers attesting my regular standing in the Society to which I belong – which I could furnish you, if desired and as to the fidelity with which I have met the duties devolving upon an agent of the society, of which I am now chief agent. I can refer you to Theodore Foster, Gen'l Agent of the "National Society of Literature & Science" 192 Broadway New York.

Yours &c
