Dear Sir

I wrote you to day a week or two & concluded it not best to trouble you again as you have been so mindful of my request to give me the news respecting our settlings on Little Cape Coast. But upon reflection I must apologize for not having an all the time agreed with 25th Sept. I shall be required to embark upon your time some 5 or 6 days in consequence of ill health. I am fearful my well wrote. Have been grumbling the past week. As things are I shall be obliged to work if you the favour to look out and arrange matter for our sailing. I then will chip & place before you all with the Estimate. I send Mr Gillis I found which will fill up some. He by the last Ar. have your truck in small morning articles instead of long cambric frosy stuff. Do spend one hour in scribbling me a note ere I leave or just to say how goes of no more —

My very truly
