Dispatched

Frederick Sept. 28th 1841

To Dr James Hall,

Dear Sir,

Your of the 25th had come to hand, by it I learn with pleasure that you are still in the land among the living, and as much as ever alive to the interests of Colonization. I fully concur with you, in the importance to the Society, of sending out a clever expedition this fall, and shall take great pleasure in aiding in any manner in bringing it about if in my power so to aid. I hope if nothing happens to frustrate my present plans to be able to take the field in a few weeks, before doing which I shall call by the way of your office and receive all necessary credentials. In regard to the matter of procuring Emmigrants in this region, I think for the present, it would be a useless endeavour. The prejudices of the blacks here are remarkably strong, and will require a more than ordinary effort in their removal. I will however have an
