it was understood that the Society would send any person that would volunteer to go, and that the Society would pay their expences there & back in order to make a faithful report now a young man has offered himself & I have taken his name. for that purpose if I have exceeded my powers you will be pleased to inform of it. he was recommended by Dr Warren son in law to Gov Thomas, there were others again objected to character after they heard of it as the mail is now waiting for this please to excuse the scrall & brevity I hope I shall be able better new in my next

I Remain your
Very Respectfully
