Rec'd Mr. McLain —
Answered 20th

Boston Nov. 17. 1841.

Dear Sir,

Your favor of 5th ult. was received in due course, and would have been acknowledged sooner if our arrangements had been completed. We have now decided to send Mr. Griswold and Mr. Mrs. Walker in the Sch. Herald from this port. We may wish to send a few barels from Baltimore; and if so, we shall avail ourselves of your kind offer.

We are greatly obliged to you for informing us of the opportunity from your port; and should have sent from there, but for the sailing of a vessel from this vicinity.

I am, Dear Sir,
Yours very resp.
H. Hill,
