Dear Sir,

I have received a letter from Revd Wm Barron, requesting me to ascertain from you the probable day of the departure of the Ship for Liberia. Being within a few hours travel of Baltimore, he wishes to remain at Philad to the latest possible time, in order not to incur unnecessary expense by delay here.

He will be accompanied by another Clergyman, and a layman who has volunteered his services as schoolmaster.

Be so kind as to convey the above information thro' the Post Office and oblige your obt Servt
