he has no knowledge of any such arrangement beyond the keeping of duties which are now exacted on goods paid into the nation to be but not on personal effects of the missionaries.

Dr Bond Lady of the Methodist Society is too ill, to seek further information there but as the matter was arranged at Washington, the statement from the Colony which you name may be easily confirmed or not: at all events we shall be happy on learning the Repeal of the enactment.

As Mr Payne will sail at an early day we shall be much obliged to hear early apprised of the final decision of your Board that we may be governed thereby in our instructions to the mission. I shall feel much obliged by your transmitting, if agreeable, at your convenience a printed Copy of the laws of the Colony. In the hope that by a spirit of kindly conciliation all difficulties may be removed

I am very truly yours

John A. Vaughan.
