"~~what is to be done~~ with the blacks", or "with our selves and our Children") it must be settled, and ~~the~~ ~~it~~ Can be ~~settled~~ only by writing upon Colony ol He is therefore for taking strong ground at the Annual Meeting at Annapolis - will meet you there on Thursday, and although a Slave-holder is pleased that the articles in opposition to the doings of the Convention are finding their way into the political journals of the State -

I propose going below this afternoon and will see the gentlemen, that I may, as far as practicable, ascertain what has been the effect of the Convention upon the cause thus far -- On Tuesday I will be in Annapolis -

Very respectfully
