Dear Sir

Being that there is no opportunity this Tide of writing you a few lines, I assume it I am in health but my wife and child is not well my wife having had been sick with Fever Fever Fever. This may inform and if you have a favorable week

Part of the object that prompted me to write, is, to beg a favor of you, that you will allow me to have two of these Jackasses which are here of Dr Steuart Elle my friend Cyrus Tubman to give up the money which I told him I spend in getting two Jacks, from the coast of Af in payment for the two which you will grant me here you will extremely oblige me

Please tell Cyrus to bring me six small Bales and a box of Brown to make Nelson
