Dear Sir

Yours of 12 inst. is rec.d. The mistake you mention, had lun seen, & deplored before. The letter, though addressed to me, I nun saw or heard of till I read it in the Repository. Mr. Gurley managed the matter, read the proof & asked no questions. When I discovered the edition was all struck off – and the types distributed. We shall have to insert an erratum in the next number.

I am much obliged to you for your notice of this error. & heartily wish it had nun occurred. There is nothing provokes certain grades of white men so much as to have their name mistaken, how much more gentlemen of Color!

Yours truly
W. McLain
