Paid

Leonard Town Nov 23d 1842

Dr Sir

Understanding that Maria Price and her three children to wit John, George and John Sylvester who were manumitted by the late Elizabeth Stuart and being claimed by her heirs as slaves filed their petition for freedom in Saint Mary's County & now desire to emigrate to "Liberia". And as the undersigned acted as their counsel upon condition that they would serve us for the term of three years; we do hereby relinquish all claim upon them provided they shall emigrate as aforesaid and the Colonization Society has full power so far as we are concerned to send them to ~~the~~ Liberia

Very Respectfully
