Rev. Wm McLain
Northampton

1842 on board the Maryland
Steam boat, past annapolis

Rev. Dr Jas. Hall

Dear Sir,

After reflecting on your intended excursion to Cambridge &c I thought, although perhaps the thought was unnecessary, that you should come down with some resolutions, ready prepared for the meetings: but it will be fortunate that you may have had your motions in Baltimore previously, therefore I should suppose the same resolutions will answer for each place, you will pardon this intrusion, my only object has been to give the best advantage as possible —

I remain very your obt. Servt
John W. Ware