John H B Latrobe Esq.

My dear Cousin

The kind interest you have manifested in my projected mission to Western Africa, & situation as President of the "Maryland Colonization Soc." must be my apology in troubling you at the present.

You are perhaps aware, of the disappointment I experienced in the vessel I expected to have sailed in from Salem Mass.s leaving two days sooner than they had notified me. And although, through the desire of being in full time, I reached Salem two days before the time appointed, the vessel had sailed near three hours prior to my arrival. carrying with it my mattrass & other articles of baggage. Another vessel sails from Salem the 20th inst. for W Africa, but
