Dear Sir

Please accept my very sincere thanks, for your prompt reply to my last, by which I am ~~encouraged~~ encouraged to make another application. The Steamboat Rappahannock, which runs from here, to Baltimore, leaves Wed'd only once a week, and that on Tuesday, at 3 o'clock P.M. To have my freight ready in Baltimore by the 5th Decem., would make it necessary that it should be on board, this boat by on Tuesday, 27th of November. I am so situated as not to be able to complete my arrangements by that time, but if I could be permitted to deliver them in Baltimore, when the steamboat reaches there, on the eighth Decem, I could have them all complete.

You will oblige me very much, by letting me know, whether this can be allowed, & whether there would be any danger, of them being left, if I detained them so long. If you think so please let me know immediately. I am sorry to give you this trouble, but circumstances compel me to make this request. I have one other favor
