James Wall. M.D.

Dear Sir

Yrs. of 29th Nov. came duly to hand, & sh. have rec.d my attention sooner but I waited the arrival of my luggage from Salem. It reached here in pt. yesterday & the balance I hope to rec.e to-day. Monday, I hope to forward my freight luggage wh. will not be much, to yr. care fr. the Rail road.

If it would not prove too troublesome, will you be so kind as to have 500 Oysters pickled & placed in jars for use during voyage. Expenses attending this & the freight of my luggage I will defray on arriving in Balt.

I rec.d this morng. a letter from Mr Latrobe inviting me to his house during stay in Balt.; will you if opportunity sh. offer
