SATURDAY......................DEC. 15, 1888.

Letter from a Former Kent Countian.

OLD CHURCH, Dec. 1st, 1888.

MESSRS. EDITORS—My Dear Sirs: It has been many months since I forced myself upon the patience of your readers, and I have thought that I may now do so without taxing them too greatly.

We have settled down in our disappointment over the results of the election, and are trying to bear our chagrin as manfully as we may. It is not the first time we have experienced this disappointment. Twenty-four years we had been hungry lookers-on, while our Republican friends were enjoying the feast of fat offices, and we had become so desperate in our longings. Then there came four years of moderate feasting for us. We had just settled down to the enjoyment of our position when we have to get up and quit place again. It is hard to suffer hunger but I have begun to believe, as Dr. Talmage said, "It is hard to get up from a good [illegible]eal when one has fixed himself to enjoy [illegible] "Blessings brighten as they take their [illegible] and we now realize that fact. Well, [illegible]lt blue and hopeless for a while, [illegible]ne have begun to realize that no [illegible]t party may be in power the [illegible]s great country are going on, [illegible] or other we are just about as [illegible]nds of one party as the other. [illegible] citizen of this county, now [illegible]ressed himself as much more [illegible] "good rain in August," than [illegible] of the presidential campaign. [illegible]e citizen, a good rain, at the [illegible] no doubt a matter of greater [illegible]

[illegible]s, did you attend the Virginia [illegible]? If you did not, you missed [illegible]g that would have paid you for [illegible]uble and expense of a short visit [illegible]chmond. I was there several times, [illegible]nd once with a Kent countian, one of your commissioners, and I think he was as much pleased as I was. I went reluctantly the first time, but the difficulty was to keep away after that. In the main building you saw what this Old Dominion is capable of doing. The building was most admirably arranged, and you could see without being in any measure interrupted. Time would fail me and your readers would be wearied with any effort on my part to describe what could have been seen. It was the thing as a whole which pleased me and made me more fond of my State of adoption. Here you could see the capabilities of a grand old State, which a quarter of a century ago was ground down by the iron heel of the invader; her resources all destroyed; her best men slain in battle; her institutions all uprooted; and the very face of the ground dug. But with all this you could not help saying to yourself, after a walk through that building, "there is life in the old land yet," and strong life too. The great centennial, with a great nation back of it, and the whole world to draw upon, was not a more laudable affair, this was the effort of a weak and financially crippled State. Outside the main building there was much to interest and amuse. There was dearth of catch-penny gambling places.

We feel here, as you do in Maryland, that these are depressing times to the agricultural interests of the country. A life of seven years among this people, in this section, has taught me to love the people, and the country has taken a hold upon me. With a kind soil, which responds most readily to anything you may do for it, and a climate unexcelled, where blizzards and cyclones, earthquakes, droughts and floods all unknown, there is no reason why this country should not build up and recover its anti-bellum prosperity.

I have often thought that if some of the over-stocked population of the Eastern Shore were to seek homes here they could be more happy and prosperous. I know of 14,000 acres of elegant land for sale for from $5 to $15 per acre. To good and honest people who can economize and do their own work, there can be found no better opening than right here. I have no interest at stake in writing this only expressing my opinion formed after years of observation. I claim that a person by putting out the same amount of energy here that is put forth in the West, they can do just as well. We are having evidences of this very thing among us now. Let others come; "the more the merrier and better."

My letter is growing beyond my expectations and so I will bring it to a close. But not without expressing the pleasure which the weekly visit from your paper gives me. I look forward to the arrival of Monday and the KENT NEWS with pleasure. It tells me all that is going on in the county where I have so many to love and I never put it down until I have gleaned from advertisements and all the information it contains. May you and your paper have many years of useful life before you. S. S. HEPBRON.

Where She Had Him.

From the Boston Courier.

Wife—"The Bible says much in favor of women, John. I thought that Israelites kept their women in the background, but if they did, the Bible, which is their history, doesn't."

Husband—"Humph! The Israelites did well by keeping their women in the back-[illegible]ound; that's where women should be."

[illegible]"But still the Bible says that—"

[illegible]h, I know there are a few women [illegible] in the Bible—there was Jezebel, [illegible]an."

[illegible]nd there was Ahab; he was [illegible]ere was—"

[illegible]se talking, Mary. The Bi-[illegible] men. Women are men-[illegible]entally, as they had in-[illegible]ons of men. The book [illegible]t women compared to [illegible]nen."

[illegible]You may be right after [illegible] I come to think of it. [illegible], at any rate, it says [illegible] does not say about [illegible]

[illegible] thought you would [illegible], Mary. What is it the [illegible]n that it does not say [illegible]

[illegible]"It says all men are [illegible]

[illegible]and arose and put on his [illegible] out to see what kind of a [illegible]

[illegible]gg-Laying Stimulant.

[illegible]n order to stimulate winter-laying, an American exchange recommends to put two or more quarts of water in a kettle and one large seed pepper, or two small ones; then put the kettle over the fire. When the water boils stir in coarse Indian meal until you have a thick mush. Let it cook an hour or so; feed hot. Horse-radish is chopped fine and stirred into the mush as prepared in the above directions and for results we are getting from five to ten eggs per day, whereas previous to feeding we had not had eggs for a long time. We hear a good deal of complaint from other people about not getting eggs. To such we would recommend cooked feed fed hot. Boiled apple skins seasoned with red pepper, or boiled potatoes seasoned with horse-radish, are good for feed, much better than uncooked food. Corn when fed to the hen by itself, has a tendency to fatten rather than produce the more profitable egg-laying. A spoonful of sulphur stirred with their food occasionally will rid them of virmin and tone up their systems.

TEACHER—Willie, what is the Capital of Canada?

Willie—The money taken there by United States financiers and boodlers.—Life.

GENTLEMEN—I have been having chills for about three (3) years, and have tried several remedies but to no avail. About three months ago, I was prevailed upon to try Celore. I used one package of that never-failing remedy for chills and to-day I feel no symptoms of their return.

Yours respectfully, WILLIS HOFLER.

THE CELORE CO.

SIRS—I have had rather a hard time to introduce Celore, as the people here thought that nothing would stop the chills but quinine. But since they have tried Celore they say it not only stops the chills but makes a complete cure. It is well started now, however, and as I am out of goods, please ship immediately. Yours truly, J. TRADE S.S.S. FOR THE BLOOD MARK

PEED'S MILL, TEXAS, June 20, 1888—The Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Ga.—Gentlemen: One of my children was troubled with rheumatism and boils for about two years. We gave her various kinds of medicine, but without profit, and began to despair of curing her at all. I was persuaded to try your Swift's Specific. After she had used several bottles the diseases all disappeared, and she is now a hale, hearty and healthy girl twelve years old. Another child has just become afflicted in the same way, and I am using the S. S. S. and anticipate a prompt and permanent cure. N. C. WAGGONER.

RICH HILL, MO., July 7, 1888—The Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.—Gentlemen: Our little girl when but three weeks old broke out with eczema. We tried the prescriptions from several good doctors, but without any special benefit. We tried S. S. S., and by the time one bottle was gone her head began to heal, and by the time she had taken six bottles she was completely cured. Now she has a full and heavy head of hair—a robust, hearty child. I feel it but my duty to make this statement. Respectfully, H. T. SHOBE.

CHATTANOOGA, TENN., June 27, 1888—The Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.—Gentlemen: In 1886 I contracted blood poison, and at once sought a physician, who treated me for several months. By his advice I went to Crab Orchard Springs, Ky., where his course of treatment was carefully observed. I recovered, as I thought, but the next spring pimples began to appear on my face and body. These gradually increased to sores and running ulcers. I was advised to try S. S. S., and immediately after taking it I commenced to improve, slowly at first, but more rapidly afterwards, and soon nothing remained to tell of my trouble. My blood is now thoroughly cleansed, and my system free from taint, and I owe my present condition—a perfect cure—to your medicine. I cheerfully give this statement that others who have suffered as I have may reap the same benefit. HARDY M. BURT, 24 West Ninth St.

HOMER, LA., May 25, 1888—The Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.—Gentlemen: About two years ago my general health gave way entirely. I was so debilitated that I almost despaired of ever feeling well again. All that the physicians done for me brought no permanent relief. Friends insisted that I should give S. S. S. a fair trial, although I thought it would be throwing away money. After taking a thorough course, my health and strength returned, and I must say that S. S. S. alone cured me, as I discarded all others while using it. As a tonic I can most heartily recommend it; for general debility, it certainly is a specific. W. F. BRIDGES, J. P.

HOMER, LA.—I know Mr. W. F. Bridges, and will say that his statement is correct. JOSEPH SHELTON, Druggist.

It is carefully compounded by an experienced physician, and adapted to woman's delicate organization. Purely vegetable and perfectly harmless in any condition of the system.

WARRANTED. "Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee of satisfaction in every case, or price ($1.00) refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrapper, and faithfully carried out for many years.
