Frederick, 11 Octr. 1843

My dear Sir,

According to your request, I have called on Henry Zedricks, & find his views of going to Liberia unaltered except as to the period of his departure. This, he thinks, could not take place before next Spring, or perhaps next fall. His object if I mistake not, is, to make a little more headway in the world before changing his location. Go when he may, he will doubtless prove a valuable accession to the Colony.

I am very truly
Yours
