Newton, Md. 19th Oct 43.

My friend.

Your of the 18th was duly rec'd.

Billy Brown will be in Balt. in due time.

Will you be so good as to write and let me know where he shall apply for lodgings the evening he gets there. He is so little acquainted that I fear he will have trouble as he gets in too late to find you in the office of the society. That he can easily find.

He is very anxious to get back to africa, exceedingly so. This is a favorable sign and I hope his presence in this country altho' it may not immediately do so will
