Trenton, Md 15th Nov. '43

My friend,

I was at length able this morning to forward to you the 3 Bbls. flour my venerable father intended should have gone to Africa.

Will you be pleased to receive it and then send a bill for the satisfaction of my father. If there be a balance due you it shall soon be paid.

I am sorry that circumstances have been such as to render it necessary for us to ask of you the incurring of so much trouble. If opportunity offers we will reciprocate the favor with great pleasure. In the mean time you have our hearty thanks.

We hope the Lord will favor the Latrobe with a safe and speedy voyage as it has pleased him to favor all previous vessels with emigrants. The Colonists will hail the arrival. I doubt not, of the Latrobe with great joy as it bears the name of one dear to them.

Your sincerely, C. W. Brewer

You will find the flour this evening at the Depot.
