CHESTERTOWN - AUG. 10, 1889.

Gov. JACKSON has ordered State's Attorney Kerr to proceed against certain social clubs in Baltimore city which, it is stated, have misused their charters.

GOVERNOR JACKSON has appointed Associate Judge David Fowler chief judge of the third judicial circuit, to succeed Hon. George Yellott, who had become disqualified by age.

PRESIDENT HARRISON returned to Washington from Deer Park last week and left that city for Bar Harbor on Tuesday accompanied by Secretaries Windom and Proctor and Private Secretary Halford. He expects to spend about ten days the guest of Secretary Blaine.

CHARLES A. BENTON has sold his interest in the Centerville Observer to Wm. J. Jr., and that paper will hereafter be published under the firm name of Kent and Roberts. We wish the paper greater prosperity than was their predecessors.

On Monday night, between nine and ten o'clock, a man was seen in a saloon looking at the firm name of Kent and Roberts. We wish the paper greater prosperity than was their predecessors.

PEACH NOTES.

Peaches sold on Light Street, Baltimore, yesterday at $1.00 per basket.

Mr. A. J. Hyson has sold his whole crop of peaches at 85 cents per bushel, to be delivered on Chester river. His farm is in Queen Anne's near Chester river bridge, and the purchasers, Messrs. B. Lamotte & Co., will ferry the peaches over. Mr. Hyson expects the orchard to yield two or three thousand baskets.

Two Daily Trains are now being run over the Kent road and will be continued during the peach season. See revised time tables for particulars.

If you want to enjoy a splendid supper of fish, crabs, etc., and a good time generally, be sure to visit "Pum Point" next Friday evening.

The New Mail Agent—Alfred E. Johnson, colored, the new mail agent on the Kent road, made his first trip down on Thursday and has entered regularly upon his work. He is a very bright individual.

The FIBERWORKS at Tolchester on Wednesday evening were the most beautiful yet witnessed and attracted large numbers of people. The bursting bombs and shooting rockets were seen many miles away. Another exhibition was announced for last evening.

A NEW LOCATION.—Mr. W. H. Cacy has purchased the large phosphate factory on Chester river, near Chester town, formerly owned by Messrs. C. W. Kennard & Co., and says with the additional facilities thus afforded he is better able to supply his increasing trade.

LOOK SLOW MOVING.—A gentleman somewhat versed in the matter gives his opinion that, at the rate of progress now making in getting the logs removed from Rock Hill creek and the bay shore, it will require about three years to finish the job. It may be, however, that the saw mill company will expedite matters a little.

LAND SALES.—Messrs. H. Hyson and C. T. Westcott, trustees, sold on Tuesday the Godwin farm, near Crumpton, 150 acres, to Mr. Geo. E. Harrison, of Crumpton at $47.50 per acre.

The Riley mill property, about 90 acres, on the Kent road, was sold by C. T. Westcott, attorney for mortgagee, to Miss Alice J. Wilson for $5,000.

THE SICK.—Mr. H. S. Barnett, the brick maker, is reported convalescent, and Mr. S. H. Clark, near Lynch's, is reported somewhat better yesterday, but still quite sick. Mr. J. Thos. Blackinton, tenant on the almshouse farm, is ill of typhoid fever, with slightly favorable symptoms yesterday morning. He is attended by Dr. Hines.

CHANGE OF SCHEDULE.—The steamer Corica commenced her daily round trips on Monday, which will be continued during the peach season, leaving Baltimore at 7 o'clock A. M., returning, will leave Crumpton at 3 P. M., and Chester town at 5 P. M. This is an admirable arrangement, as by it shippers will be given the advantage of having the longest possible time for gathering their fruit, and at the same time have it delivered at the wharf in time for the morning market.

DOWNERS.—The 17-year-old son of Mr. Samuel Loller, of Queen Anne's county, was killed by a horse on Tuesday afternoon about 5 o'clock. A search was made by William Dunn of this town and others and the body found at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, and from the position of his arms and limbs it is supposed that he was attacked with cramp. This young man had gone in bathing in Resin creek, about a mile above this town nearly opposite Morgan's creek.

The steamer Chester made an excursion from Crumpton to Bay Ridge on Wednesday afternoon. She stopped here with about three hundred merry excursionists on board and would no doubt have augmented her crew at our wharf but for the fact that our people are waiting for the great counting excursion to the same place next Wednesday on the splendid steamer Emma Giles.

FERTILIZERS.—N. X. E. Wickes, Esq., of the machinery is of the latest and most perfect patterns and the establishment is able to use up as much as ten thousand gallons of milk per day. As yet they have been able to get not more than one-fourth of that quantity.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE.—The next session of this college will begin Sept. 18. The number of visitors and friends of this old and historic college have determined to infuse additional life into it by the adoption of new features and a general progressive policy which will surely increase its patronage and usefulness. Eastern Shore parents and guardians, having boys to send to college, will do well to compare it with any other in location, in healthfulness, in rates, in moral advantages, &c., &c. The faculty will be composed of three of the former teachers—Messrs. Watson and Clarke—all of them educators of high reputation and eminently qualified for the chairs they fill, together with a principal of sound learning, integrity and enterprise.

REVENUE STOP.—A goodly company gathered at Quaker Neck wharf last Thursday to witness the boat race, but on account of the light breeze the sport was nothing to what it would have been. The first race was between Wm. H. Lambert's "Happy Sticks" and John Dickerson's "Veto," over a two mile course, rounding boats above and below the wharf. There was no purse and the "Veto" came in first.

The second race was to admit skills and interest in the boat race. The following boats were present but on account of the light wind did not start: racing. Bateau: Dude, Capt. Thos. Hadaway; Estelle, E. Virle, E. Emory; Veto, John Dickerson; Virle, Neal Hadaway. Skiff: Pack, H. C. Brown; Hally Skiff, W. H. Lambert. Won by Dude, with Estelle second.

IT IS ASTONISHING how good and reliable goods can be sold so cheap. A Friedman has applied the knife to all of his spring and summer clothing; some cut at cost, others away below cost. The reason he gives for so doing is that he don't want to carry anything over. Read his ad.

A HANDSOME MONUMENT has been erected to the memory of the late B. S. Ford in the M. E. Cemetery at North East in Cecil county.

HERE IS AN ITEM from Cape May: Hubbard hunters are at Cape May in force this summer. An observing person who saw them in the lobby of the big hotel, reporting their managing man, who would like to sell to you the best of the market. It is really surprising to learn that these mothers of large families of marriageable girls keep a list of available men whom they would not object to see as soon as law. But the men are not so easily caught by these smart tactics. They are conversant with the tactics resorted to, and there must be something more than mere show if they are to be captured.

A WALKER prisoner in the District of Columbia was killed a colored man while standing on a street car. He was charged on a verdict of justifiable homicide rendered by the coroner's jury.
