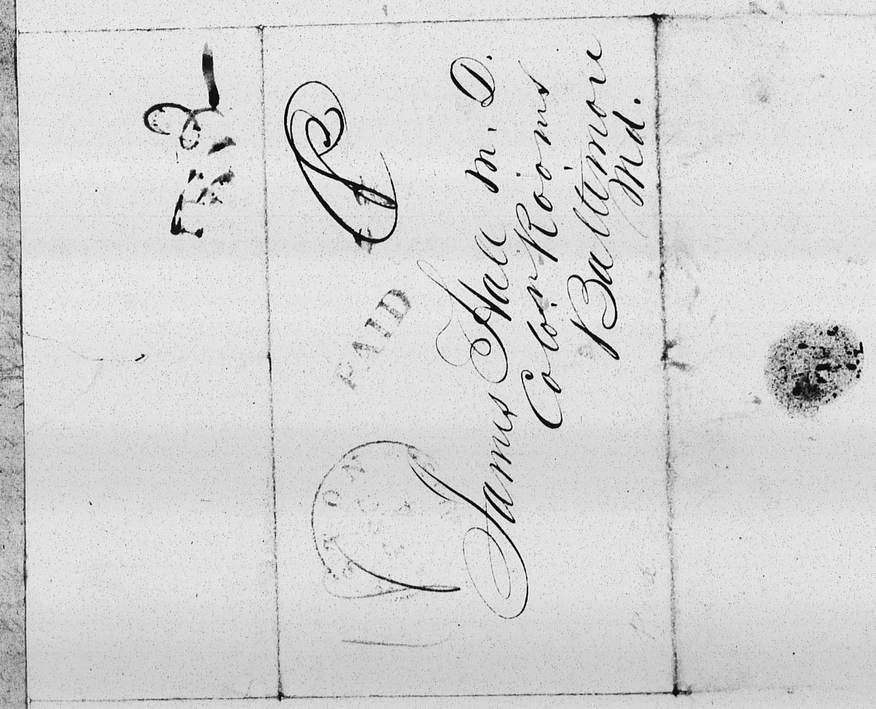
McLain Nov 25th



Washington Nov. 29th 1843

My dear Sir,

We find some papers strangely missing, & Mr Whittlesey thinks they were put into the hands of Mr Ellsworth, who is under the impression that they may have been transmitted to you. They are the Bill of lading of the Renown with our Contract for taking supplies for Government. You returned the Charter Party. Will you be so kind as to look among your papers & see whether these strong documents are with them.

Hoping you are prospering in all things, & with best respects to Mrs Hall, rest assured, that I am ever your faithful friend &c

R R Gurley

Dr James Hall

Mr McLain was in Boston, when he last wrote. How advances your medical work?
