Washington Decr. 18th 1843

My Dear Sir,

I observe Dr Bacon's story of Roberts attack upon Don Miguel & the destruction of this slave trader is published in many newspapers, & much to the injury of Roberts & the cause. We have been told from the colony that Don Miguel was warned off, & that he was shot after having hostilely fired upon the Colonists. I believe you were in Africa at the time of this tragedy, & I should be much obliged to you, to favor me with a statement of the facts in the case.

With great respect
& regard
Your friend & Sr.
R R Gurley
