qualifications & bids fair to become useful as a Teacher, as he seems to take pride in the business.

Her is now somewhat in debt to the Agency here, all of which will be deducted from his salary; and I think I can so arrange matters, as to pay him here, without drawing the gear, on the Society or Ladies.

Assure the Ladies from me, that their interests hereafter shall be well attended to, having now the authority to interfere: and further, that our community are truly grateful for all past favors, & hope their hands will be upheld by a benevolent public. The School is much in want of elementary books of all kinds.

With respects to the Committee

I remain Dear Sir,

Your Obedt Servt,
