House of Delegates

Jan. 31 - 1844

My dear Sir,

I do not see that you need come down here unless your inclination should lead you. There will be a ball to-morrow evening - if you wish to be present at that come by all means. I shall be happy to introduce you to all the young or middle aged ladies of my acquaintance. Except for ball there is likely to be nothing of any great interest here for some time, unless the legislative debates may have interest. But you are not care much, I believe, for balancing on any subject dear colonization. If that should come up, which will not be this week nor the next I think, you shall have due notice.

Very truly yr
