My dear Sir.

Since I mentioned to you that I could no longer act as one of the State Managers, and requested you to have another substituted in my place, I have supposed that my name was no longer continued in the commission. Had I known it, I should have sent in my resignation. I shall depend upon you to have another appointed in the next commission, or if the commission has been issued lately, I must resign and have another appointed. Knowing as little as I do of the recent transactions of the Board, it is a fact it must be pretty much in the dark, which you know is not my habit. Relying upon your statement of the urgent necessity of having this draft signed by me in the absence of Col Stewart and your promise to save me harmless I have signed it, with the understanding however that it is the last time I am to be called upon. I expect to be down in a week or two.

Yours Sincerely
H. Miller
