Baltimore 29 January 1844.

My dear Sir

The case of Henning against Cline is settled, and herewith I send you the papers having relation to it.

The agreement which I made with Mr Wallis was, to dismiss the case & to pay the costs of the court & the Magistrate. The enclosed certificate will show that the costs were $4.82 - 4.58. Mr Wallis declined to receive his appearance fee of $1.66 p. I of course do not charge mine. The balance $2.12 p. I paid, in which sum your Society stands indebted to me. As I am closing up my business of 1843 I will be obliged by your letting me have it.

Do not fail to command me when I can be of service.

Very faithfully
Mr Meade Addison
