My Dear Sir

Yours of 6 inst. is rec.— I wrote you Sat. & said that would forward you my bill of Exg. but find this morning that my factotum did not put it in the letter. So I inclose it now.

We are making arrangements to send a vessel & would be very glad to take four or five hundred bands of freight for you — and to let you have the vessel after she reaches the Coast. — I may see you perhaps in a few days.

Yours truly

James Hall M.D. W. McLain

P.S. I want that Boy. Books very much. Please say when I may at our Depot for it.
