CHESTERTOWN - DEC. 6, 1890

CLEVELAND OR HILL?

Who Will Be the Democratic Nominee in '92.

At this time it is pretty plain that in the National Democratic Convention in 1892 Mr. Cleveland will not have a united delegation from his State. In the situation of the party in New York, this division, under ordinary circumstances, would defeat his nomination. But it now seems probable that the voice of his party in the whole country will be so imperative for him that Hill and Tammany will be obliged to submit. Yet it must not be forgotten that the vote of New York is generally held to be so essential to democratic success that the nomination of any candidate from the State may seem to shrewd politicians very hazardous. They will, however, reflect that not only would Mr. Cleveland probably carry Massachusetts, Connecticut and Rhode Island, but that the nomination of any other candidate would not carry those States, but would chill and discourage the party throughout the Union. The logic of the situation, however, will no more nominate Mr. Cleveland than the logic of the republican situation in 1856 nominated Mr. Seward or Mr. Chase or Mr. Sumner. His nomination will be due to the fact that the national democratic party demands his leadership with such unanimity that the loss of New York may be risked. Gov. Hill also is undoubtedly shrewd enough to see that if Mr. Cleveland should be the evident choice of his party in '92, a New York opposition to him which should result in his defeat in the convention would be fatal to the political hopes of its instigator Meanwhile, however, the snare of the senatorship is vainly spread in Gov. Hill's sight.—Harper's Weekly.

PARTY LEADERS WHO LEARNED NOTHING FROM DEFEAT.—The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun writes: Senator Dolph, of Oregon, is the only republican member of Congress who has so far expressed the opinion that the force bill will not be passed at the ensuing session of Congress. A good many members, in speaking on the subject, give utterance to the hope that it will be passed, while some assert very possitively that it will be put through. Mr. McComas, who acknowledges that his advocacy of this totally indefensible measure cost him numerous votes, still declares himself in favor of it, and is one of those who "hopes" it will pass. Mr. Lodge, the father of the bill, has also failed to profit by the lesson which his constituents administered to him, and is very emphatic in the declaration that it is the duty of the Senate to take up the bill and pass it promptly. All this indicates the certainty of an attempt to secure action.

Final action on the bill is a manifest impossibility unless the Senate changes its rules. Success in any such undertaking as this cannot be counted upon with any degree of confidence, for waiving consideration of the undoubted obstacles which it will be in the power of the democratic minority to interpose, a united party vote on the republican side seems very difficult to obtain. The greater part of the session will be taken up with two bills if the republicans really make the effort to press them—the force bill and the "gerrymandering" apportionment bill. This will crowd the appropriation bills into an exceedingly short space of time, and in all probability force an extra session.

A CONNECTICUT COMPLICATION.—The political complication over the recent gubernatorial election in Connecticut is a curious one. On the face of the returns Judge Luzon B. Morris, the democratic candidate for Governor, received a majority of twenty-four votes over all other candidates, and was therefore, it would appear, duly elected. The republicans do not contend that their candidate, General Merwin, received a majority of the pouplar vote, or that he would have had a majority if certain votes had been counted which were thrown out by the local moderators for informalities and violations of the new election law. What they contend is that neither condidate had a majority of popular vote, and that therefore, as the Connecticut law prescribes, the dhoice of Governor is relegated to the Legislature. As the Legislature has a republican majority on joint ballot, it follows that if this argument is admitted to be valid a republican Governor and State officers will be chosen. As this would be the obvious result, it is understood that the Senate will refuse to enter into convention with the House, on the ground that "the returns show the election of Judge Morris, and that, consequently, there is no duty for a joint convention to perform." The constitution requires that whenever the Legislature elects the Governor it shall be on the day after the first meeting. If the Senate refuses to respond to the call for a convention, there will be a deadlock, and the present Governor will hold over until the matter can be decided.

A Warbling Girl.

A lady writing to the British Medical Journal says that she recently heard a young girl of fourteen years "whistle," as her people called it, but "warble" it really was, for she kept her mouth slightly open, and the lips merely trembled, the notes being formed in the throat, the centre of it working as a bird's does when singing, and the sounds produced were exactly like those of blackbirds and thrushes. She warbled several airs to piano-forte accompaniments faultlessly and most beautifully modulated; and so powerful were the notes that her grandmother, who was excessively deaf, could catch every one, without the slightest effort, in another room a little distance off; in the same room some notes were deafening, when she poured them out of the forte parts. She had been self-taught entirely from "whistling" to her dog and sitting in the window to "warble" to the birds.

A LOVELY WOMAN
overheard one say of her, "By Heaven she's painted!" "Yes," retorted she indignantly, "and by heaven only!" Ruddy health mantled her cheek, yet this beautiful lady, once thin and pale, and suffering from a dry, hacking cough, night-sweats, and spitting of blood, seemed destined to fill a consumptive's grave. After spending hundreds of dollars on physicians, without benefit, she tried Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery; her improvement was soon marked, and in a few months she was plump and rosy again,—a perfect picture of health and strength.
This wonderful "Golden Medical Discovery," now world-famed as a remedy for consumption, which is really lung-scrofula, is not only an acknowledged remedy for that terrible fatal malady, when taken in time and given a fair trial, but also for all forms of Scrofulous Skin and Scalp Diseases, as White Swellings, Fever-sores, Hip-Joint Disease, Salt-rheum, Tetter, Eczema, Boils, Carbuncles, Erysipelas and kindred ailments. All scaly, crusty, itching, troublesome eruptions yield readily to its curative powers. It invigorates the liver, enriches the blood and promotes all the bodily functions. It is the only liver, blood and lung remedy, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee that it will do all that it is recommended to, or money paid for it will be promptly refunded.
